

Huck.

AKA: Huckleberry, Mr. Finn

4 Months Old

One Giant Snuggle

Hi! My name is Huck! I am the sweetest orange tabby cat you will ever be lucky enough to meet, and I want to live with you! In typical orange cat style, I am pretty easygoing, but I tell you what I'd like, and often. I LOVE to talk, and I love to think that you are listening, even if you're not, so if you could nod and smile, or occasionally interject sometimes, that would be great too. As much as I'm a talky cat, I get sleepy and tired a lot and it's then that you'll find me curled up in your lap snoozing away for hours on end, or snuggled underneath your sweater, looking for someplace warm that reminds me of you.

Nighttime is one of my favourite times, since I have 6 or 7 hours to roam uninterrupted throughout the house, but by morning, I'm bored. And if you let me come in and wake you up, you'll be covered in purrs and kitten kisses and head bumps galore. I might like my independence, but after a whole night, I miss you!

The first thing anyone would probably tell you about me is that I'm a purr machine. You'll always catch me purring while I'm eating, sleeping, playing in the bathtub, chasing my tail, chasing my toys around, or checking out new strangers who have come over to my house (I'm a bit shy at first, but I warm up quickly). I LOVE to play, and I'm excellent at climbing. You'll often find me up in windows watching what's going on in the street, and waving at people who walk by.

My dream family will have lots of time to play and snuggle, and a fantastic friend or two (if I can't take my sister with me). A house with some shiny toys would be especially nice - I am very fond of felted wool balls (I think my foster mom included some in my little care package), and things that crinkle, like one of those cat tunnels. They are SO fun!

I'm ultra-interested in people food, and I love spare ribs, yogurt, cheese, bacon, roasted sweet potato, ground beef and more. The list is endless really, unlike my sister Maddie who just likes yogurt. How boring! The cat food I've been eating is all natural food from Merrick's - mostly their dry crunchy "Before Grain" food, but I like to throw in a little bowl or two of their wet food every day just to keep things interesting. I especially like Thanksgiving Day Dinner. YUM. It has lots of gravy.

I use Feline Pine litter instead of the chalky or clumpy stuff, and I like it just fine, but I'm pretty sure any kind of litter will do. I'm not at all scared of water, but sometimes that makes me a little too brave.

If you've read this all the way through, I probably love you already.
