AKA: Madeleine, Little Miss
4 Months Old
Shoulder-cat of Love

Hi! My name is Maddie! I am a VERY sweet brown tabby kitten who is on the hunt for my forever family. I've been living with my foster family for the last little while, and BOY, did we ever have fun! My brother and I had all kinds of adventures over the past 8 weeks - we even had our own room!

The first thing anyone would probably tell you about me is that I'm a purr machine. You'll always catch me purring while I'm eating, sleeping, playing in the bathtub, chasing my tail, chasing my toys around, or checking out new strangers who have come over to my house (I'm a bit shy at first, but I warm up quickly). I LOVE to play, and I'm excellent at climbing up and down stairs - my foster parent's house had three floors and I loved to race up and down from top to bottom!

I also love to explore, which is while you'll often find me teetering in places way up high, or finding ways to get up onto your windowsills, tables, counters and desks. It's great fun to watch the world go by outside, but I have to admit that I'm still a little confused by wind and rain - it's blowing! It's wet! I'm not sure what it's supposed to be!

My dream family will have lots of time to play and snuggle, and a fantastic friend or two (if I can't take my brother with me). A house with some shiny toys would be especially nice - I am very fond of felted wool balls (I think my foster mom included some in my little care package), and feathers on sticks (which I have been known to play fetch with, on occasion).

I am very much a shoulder cat, so don't be surprised if I climb up into your lap and then onto your shoulders for a little nap. I like to be perched up high, and think it's great if you walk around the house while I'm up there - especially if you have stairs! I don't like being carried up and down stairs, but if I'm perched on your shoulder, it's all fine!

I am not at all interested in people food, except for yogurt. I also like to try to smell your dinner, but don't worry - I'm just checking it out. I don't actually want any. Bleh. People food is boring. Give me crunchies any day of the week and I'm a happy girl. The food I've been eating is all natural food from Merrick's - mostly their dry crunchy "Before Grain" food, but I like to throw in a little bowl or two of wet food every day just to keep things interesting. I especially like Thanksgiving Day Dinner. YUM. It has lots of gravy.

I use Feline Pine litter instead of the chalky or clumpy stuff, and I like it just fine, but I'm pretty sure any kind of litter will do. I'm also fascinated by toilets - I love to perch up on the seat, and have only fallen in once!
