

Trixie.

AKA: Tricky, Turkey, Trouble

3 Months Old

Super-sweet mischief maker.

Hi! My name is Trixie! I am a VERY sweet black short-hair kitten who is on the hunt for my forever family. I've been living with my foster family for the last little while, and BOY, did we ever have fun! My brother and sister and I had all kinds of adventures over the past 8 weeks.

The first thing anyone would probably tell you about me is that I'm a purr machine. You'll always catch me purring while I'm eating, sleeping, playing in the bathtub, chasing my toys around, or checking out new strangers who have come over to my house. I LOVE to play, and I'm a super-fast runner, running from one end of the house to the other in no time.

I also love to explore, which is while you'll often find me teetering in places way up high, or finding ways to get up onto your windowsills. It's so fun to watch the world go by outside, and it's nice to get a cool breeze on these hot summer days! My foster parents taught me how to play outside in a harness with a leash, so we spent lots of time walking around in the front yard chasing bugs, saying hi to the neighbours and even sometimes scaring dogs (they're such chickens!). I'm not scared of ANYTHING. Except airplanes. They're noisy, and make me hide behind the fridge.

These last few weeks I have started to check out people food, which is completely fascinating. My favourite is cheese, but I also like anything crunchy. I eat lots of crunchy cat food too, and occasionally some of Merrick's wet food. I am especially partial to the Thanksgiving dinner verison. They call me Turkey for a reason!

My dream family will have lots of time to play and snuggle, and a pantry full of delicious food! Some shiny toys would be especially nice, but what I'd really like is a playment. I've only ever known a cat family with my brother Hugo and my sister Honey in it, and we nap, wrestle and explore together. I'm going to miss them if they don't get to come with me to my new home!

My foster parents were so good to me. Would you let them know I have a great new home? They just hate it when we kitties give them lots of love and then just up and disappear on them forever. You can email them at kitties@mintyfresh.ca, and I KNOW they'd be happy to hear I'm doing well.
